

UNDERSTANDING CAR ACCIDENTS

Have you been the victim of a car accident? Automobile crashes can cause extensive pain and long-term complications that stay with victims for the rest of their lives. If you are suffering serious injury due to the negligence of another, you may be entitled to receive compensation through an insurance company or from a lawsuit.

Car accidents can result from numerous causes, such as:

- Driving while under the influence of drugs or alcohol
- Distracted driving
- Violating posted speed limits or traffic laws

Whatever the cause of your accident, and whatever type of injuries that you have sustained, now is the time to act.

Some of the damages that can be recovered from a car accident personal injury claim are:

- Past and future medical bills
- Past and future loss of earnings
- Pain and suffering
- Property damage

In Colorado, each auto driver has a duty to control his or her vehicle and avoid accidents with others on the road. If this duty is violated, whether or not it was intentional, and directly causes injury during the accident, there is cause to file a personal injury lawsuit.
